

THE PANTC* philosophy reading group

presents a conference on

Bioethics and the Philosophy of Medicine

August 2-3, 2013
Park Hall 280
SUNY Buffalo, North Campus

Friday, August 2nd

8:00 Breakfast

Morning Session:

9:00 Peter Koch "Death and the Hylomorphic Animal"

10:00 Yuichi Minemura "Contemporary Brain Death Controversies and the Human Identity Problem"

11:00 Catherine Nolan "Why Criteria for Death Should not be Reversible"

12:00 Lewis Powell "Adam Smith on Sympathy for the Deceased"

1:00 Lunch

Afternoon Session:

2:30 Steven Wear "Informed Consent: Theory and Practice"

3:30 Philip Reed "How to Gerrymander Intention"

Keynote Address:

4:30 John Martin Fischer "Abortion and Thomson's People-Seeds Case"

Saturday, August 3rd

8:00 Breakfast

Morning Session:

9:00 Rose Koch-Hershenov "Zygotes, Cells and Substantial Change: A Reorganization of the Matter"

10:00 David Hershenov "Healthy Development and the Potential that Matters"

11:00 James Delaney "Do Enhancements Necessitate a Notion of Harm in the Concept of Disease?"

12:00 Barry Smith "Diseases, Diagnoses, Signs and Symptoms"

1:00 Lunch

Afternoon Session:

2:30 Neil Feit "Counterfactual Harm and Omission"

3:30 John Keller "A Puzzle about Philosophy and Public Policy"

4:30 Steve Kershner "Criminalizing Sex"