

SENSES, PROPOSITIONS, AND STATES OF AFFAIRS

A Colloquium organised by the Department of Philosophy of the University of Sheffield

Friday - Saturday, March 4 - 5, 1977

Programme

Friday (meetings held in Lecture Theatre 5, Lower Ground Floor, Arts Tower, University of Sheffield)

2.00-4.15 p.m. Dr. Barry Smith (Sheffield):

The Formal Ontology of Negative States of Affairs

Dr. Peter Simons (Manchester):

States of Affairs, States and Events

Chairman: Dr. Rolf Gruner (Sheffield)

4.15-5.15 p.m. Tea in Senior Common Room Library

5.15-7.30 p.m. Mr. Brian McGuinness (Oxford):

(to be announced)

Chairman: Professor P.H. Nidditch (Sheffield)

7.45 p.m. Dinner in Senior Common Room

Saturday (meetings held in the Senior Common Room Library, University of Sheffield)

10.00-11.45 a.m. Mr. Willis Domingo (Oxford):

Kant: An 18th-century Anti-Realist

Dr. David Bell (Sheffield):

Reply

Chairman: Dr. Barry Smith (Sheffield)

12.00-1.30 p.m. Lunch in Students' Union

1.30-4.15 p.m. Dr. Thomas Baldwin (York):

Causality, Identity and Events

Dr. Patrick Fitzpatrick (Durham):

States and Opacity

Chairman: Dr. David Bell (Sheffield)

4.15-5.00 p.m. Tea in Senior Common Room

5.00 p.m. Discussion to be introduced by Prof. Peter Geach (Leeds)
on Facts, Thoughts and Propositions

Chairman: Mr. Kevin Mulligan (Hamburg)