

Men Without Qualities

PHILOSOPHY AND LITERATURE IN AUSTRIA AND GERMANY

A two-day colloquium: Saturday 7 July — Sunday 8 July.

Organised by the Seminar for Austro-German philosophy in collaboration with ICA.

SATURDAY 7 JULY

- 12.00 — 12.15 REGISTRATION
- 12.15 — 1.45 MUSIC AND PHILOSOPHY IN HAPSBURG AUSTRIA
Dr Peter Simons, Lecturer in Philosophy, Bolton Institute of Technology
- 2.30 — 4.00 WITTGENSTEIN, WEININGER AND THERAPEUTIC NIHILISM
Allan Janik, co-author of Wittgenstein's Vienna
- 4.00 — 5.30 THE LAW AND THE PROPHETS: the idea of an Inner Tribunal in German Literature
from Kleist to Kafka
Dr Barry Smith, Research Fellow, University of Sheffield
- 6.30 — 8.00 AGAINST REPRESENTATION: KLEIST, WEININGER, WITTGENSTEIN, KAFKA
Kevin Mulligan, University of Hamburg
- 8.00 — 9.30 WITTGENSTEIN AND MUSIC
M-A Lescourret, Paris

SUNDAY 8 JULY

- 12.00 — 1.30 THE PSYCHOLOGY OF NIETZCHE
Wolfgang Degen, Institute of Philosophy, University of Erlangen
- 2.15 — 3.45 KARL KRAUS AND THE LAST DAYS OF MANKIND
Frank Field, Department of History, University of Keele
- 3.45 — 5.15 SCHNITZLER AND FREUD
Caroline Oliver, University of Sheffield
- 6.30 — 8.00 THE OPTIMUM VELOCITY OF APPROACH: Some Reflections on Kafka's Trial
R Kavanagh, Lecturer in German, University of Sheffield

TICKETS:

Tickets are priced £3.00 (£2.00 individual days)

ICA temporary membership: 25p

ICA Box Office: 01-930 6393

ICA

Nash House, The Mall, London SW1

*The organisers wish to thank the Dresdener Bank,
the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany,
and the University of Sheffield for their kind support.*