

SEMINAR FOR AUSTRO-GERMAN PHILOSOPHY

MEANING AND STRUCTURE

a two-day colloquium organised in association with the Goethe Institute, Manchester, on Saturday and Sunday, 17-18 May, 1980, in the University of Manchester.

Saturday
17 May

1100 Professor E. Holoenstein, University of Bochum (author of Roman Jakobson's...Phenomenological Structuralism):
Universals of Knowledge - Constraints of Understanding

1230 Lunch

1400 R.A.Hudson, University College, London
Dependency and Constituency in Grammar

1515 D.A.Cruse, University of Manchester
Taxonomy and Part-Whole Hierarchies

1630 Tea

1645 Professor W. Haas, University of Manchester
Function, Structure, and the Semantic Neutrality of ~~Language~~ ^{Syntax}

1800 Kevin Mulligan, University of Hamburg
What is (a) Linguistic Structure?

Sunday
18 May

1030 Peter Simons, Bolton and Sazlburg
Strata in Language

1145 Barry Smith, University of Manchester
Phenomenology and the Weave of Language

1300 Lunch

1415 Andrzej Poltawski, Warsaw
Cognition and Action

1530 James Brown, New University of Ulster
On Representative Acts

Meetings will take place in the Senior Common Room, 1st floor, Tower, Owens Park, Wilmslow Road, Rusholme, Manchester 14.

Owens Park is a large student residence approximately three miles South of the city centre. Buses 40-42, 44-46, 49 from city. There is no registration fee.

Further information from Barry Smith, Department of Philosophy, University of Manchester, M13 9PL, tel. 061 225 2150.